The Defined Outcome Funds employ a strategy to provide buffer protection, which includes a capped upside return risk and an outcome period risk. These strategies could limit the upside participation of the fund in rising equity markets relative to other funds. The buffer provides protection in the event of a market downturn. This may conflict with your investment objectives by limiting your ability to maximize growth of your contract value and the value of your guaranteed benefits.

For more information on these funds and their strategies, please see the funds' prospectus.

- ¹ In order for the $20 monthly fee to be waived, the contract value must be $250,000 or more on the monthly date the fee is to be taken.
- ² Upon annuitization, the flat fee no longer applies and the contract would receive a 0.10% M&E charge if the contract value is below $250,000 on the annuity commencement date. If $250,000 or more, it would receive a 0% M&E charge.
- ³ Please see the prospectus for more details regarding availability and revocability.
- ⁴ Minimum issue age of 59½ for qualified; no minimum for nonqualified.
- ⁵ Due to the structure of the Defined Outcome Funds, transfer or any reallocations must be made by 2:00 p.m. EST or they will be processed the next day. The Lincoln Defined Outcome Funds have characteristics unlike many other traditional investments and may not be suitable for all investors. There is no guarantee that the outcomes for an outcome period will be realized. For more information regarding whether an investment in these funds is right for you, see the prospectus.
- ⁶ There is no additional tax-deferral benefit for an annuity contract purchased in an IRA or other tax-qualified plan.
- ⁷ Maximum charge of 1.40% and 1.70%, respectively, based on oldest issue age. The initial fee is guaranteed for 20 years after election. The rider is irrevocable and does not provide an opt-out provision for fee increases. Investment requirements apply.
- ⁸ Asset allocation does not assure or guarantee better performance and cannot eliminate the risk of investment loss.
- ⁹ Dollar cost averaging and portfolio rebalancing cannot be elected simultaneously. Neither investment strategy assures a profit, nor will it protect against loss in a declining market. Using these investment methods involves continuous investment in securities, regardless of fluctuating price levels. Therefore, you should consider your financial ability to continue purchasing through periods of low price levels.
- ¹⁰ Not available with Defined Outcome Funds.

Variable annuities are long-term investment products designed for retirement purposes and are subject to market fluctuation, investment risk, and possible loss of principal. Variable annuities contain both investment and insurance components and have fees and charges, including mortality and expense, administrative, and advisory fees. Optional features are available for an additional charge. The annuity's value fluctuates with the market value of the underlying investment options, and all assets accumulate tax-deferred. Withdrawals of earnings are taxable as ordinary income and, if taken prior to age 59½, may be subject to an additional 10% federal tax. Withdrawals will reduce the death benefit and cash surrender value.

Investors are advised to consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses of the variable annuity and its underlying investment options carefully before investing.
