Clients are solely responsible for monitoring the total amount of deposits that they have with each Program Bank (both through the IBRAA and outside of the IBRAA), including any bank accounts, certificates of deposit, and other deposits made directly with a Program Bank or through LFA, LFS, or any other intermediary, in order to determine the extent of FDIC insurance coverage available to them on their deposits, including their deposits through the IBRAA (“Program Deposits”), and to identify any of their deposits, including Program Deposits, that are not covered by FDIC insurance. Depending on the amount of deposits that clients have at a Program Bank apart from their Program Deposits, clients may wish to direct that one or more Program Banks on this Program Bank List be excluded from holding their Program Deposits. At any time, clients may exclude one or more Program Banks on this Program Bank List from holding their Program Deposits by contacting their LFA or LFS financial professional.

For additional information on the IBRAA, including additional information regarding the application of this Program Bank List, the function of “Excess Deposit Banks,” FDIC insurance coverage and applicable limitations, and other important matters, please review LFA’s or LFS’s, as applicable, Bank Sweep Program Disclosure Document, which is available at lfa-sagemark.com or lfsecurities.com, respectively, under My accounts—Disclosures. After reviewing these important disclosures, please address any questions you may have with your LFA or LFS financial professional before consenting to the use of the IBRAA as the cash sweep for your accounts.
